 Your eligibility for the Critical Care Nursing Examination Critical Care Nursing - Adult Examination has been approved. Please visit the AMP website at www.goAMP.com or call (888) 519-9901 to schedule an examination appointment. You must schedule and complete your examination before your eligibility period expires on 01/01/2008. When scheduling and taking your examination, your AACN Customer ID#, preceded by the letter "C", will be used in place of your Social Security Number. This number is C09999999.

If the exam type printed on this postcard is incorrect, the spelling of your name on this postcard does not match the IDs you plan to use at the testing site, or if you have other questions, please contact AACN Certification Corporation's Customer Care Department at 800-899-AACN. Best wishes for success on the Critical Care Nursing Examination!

Note: Your exam eligibility is subject to audit. If randomly selected you will be asked to provide a copy of your RN license and documentation from your verifier confirming completion of the clinical hour requirement. Failure to respond to or pass the audit could result in revocation of your certification.
