Leading-Edge APRN Certification

As the leader in acute and critical care nursing certification, AACN Certification Corporation understands the indispensable role APRNs play in meeting the essential needs of the most vulnerable patient populations. We have developed advanced practice exams that validate your knowledge and provide credentials required for APRN licensure.

We offer APRN certifications that align with requirements of the Consensus Model for APRN Regulation and are recognized for APRN licensure by all state boards of nursing:

ACNPC-AG

Adult-Gerontology Acute Care Nurse Practitioners

ACCNS-AG

Adult-Gerontology

ACCNS-P

Pediatric

ACCNS-N

Neonatal

Clinical Nurse Specialists (educated from wellness through acute care)

ACNPC and CCNS certifications are available as renewal options only.

Our Community of Exceptional Nurses

The AACN Difference

The American Association of Critical-Care Nurses (AACN) elevates nursing practice through a shared passion for, and commitment to, professional excellence. When you belong to AACN, you belong to the largest professional organization for acute and critical care nurses. The AACN community:

- Drives excellence by creating standard-setting resources and easy-to-use clinical practice tools
- Empowers members to do their best for patients, their families and the profession
- Connects more than 125,000 nurses who care for or influence the care delivered to acutely and critically ill patients and their families

To support you as you transition into your new APRN role, AACN is pleased to provide you with a free year of AACN e-membership. Benefits of e-membership include:

- Discount on certification exams
- Discounts on education resources and events, including our annual NTI/API conference
- Digital versions of these AACN publications: American Journal of Critical Care, Critical Care Nurse and AACN Bold Voices
