Circle of Excellence

Kenneth Jun Logrono is a head nurse for quality improvement (QI) at Hamad General Hospital, Hamad Medical Corporation in Doha, Qatar. An internationally recognized leader and champion of clinical excellence, he drives data-informed strategies to enhance patient safety and organizational performance. His Physiokinesis Program for Video-Assisted Thoracic Surgery (VATS) patients cut length of stay by 56% (9.0 to 4.0 days), while bedside timeout compliance rose from 44% to 90%, embedding high-reliability principles across the acute care wards. Through his “Leanomics” initiative, he achieved a 60% cost reduction and reduced consumable stockouts, and his “Talk to Me” Second Victim Support Program strengthened a no-blame culture among staff. As a mentor, Kenneth Jun has guided over 150 staff through his Tuesday QI clinics, helping colleagues gain professional certification and showcase their work internationally, fostering a culture of continuous learning, improvement and frontline empowerment.
