- CCRN® (Neonatal)
- CCRN-E™ (Adult)
- PCCN®
- CMC®
- CSC®
- ACCNS-AG®

Our advanced practice certification programs, ACCNS-AG, ACCNS-P, ACCNS-N and ACNPC-AG, meet the National Council of State Boards of Nursing (NCSBN) criteria for APRN certification programs.
ACCNS-AG RENEWAL HANDBOOK
Adult-Gerontology Clinical Nurse Specialist (wellness through acute care)

As healthcare becomes increasingly complex and challenging, certification has emerged as a mark of excellence showing patients, employers and the public that a nurse possesses a defined body of knowledge, and has met the rigorous requirements to achieve specialty and/or subspecialty certification.

AACN Certification Corporation programs were created to protect healthcare consumers by validating the knowledge of nurses who care for and/or influence the care delivered to the acutely and critically ill. We are pleased to provide you with this handbook with information about how to renew your ACCNS-AG certification.

Today, more than 125,000 practicing nurses hold one or more of these certifications from AACN Certification Corporation:

Specialty Certifications
- CCRN® is for nurses providing direct care to acutely/critically ill adult, pediatric or neonatal patients.
- CCRN-K™ is for nurses who influence the care delivered to acutely/critically ill adult, pediatric or neonatal patients, but do not primarily or exclusively provide direct care.
- CCRN-E™ is for nurses working in a teleICU monitoring/caring for acutely/critically ill adult patients from a remote location.
- PCCN® is for progressive care nurses providing direct care to acutely ill adult patients.
- PCCN-K™ is for nurses who influence the care delivered to acutely ill adult patients, but do not primarily or exclusively provide direct care.

Subspecialty Certifications
- CMC® is for certified nurses providing direct care to acutely/critically ill adult cardiac patients.
- CSC® is for certified nurses providing direct care to acutely/critically ill adult patients during the first 48 hours after cardiac surgery.

Advanced Practice Consensus Model-Based Certifications
- ACNPC-AG® is for the adult-gerontology acute care nurse practitioner educated at the graduate level.

The ACCNS credentials are for clinical nurse specialists educated at the graduate level to provide care across the continuum from wellness through acute care:
- ACCNS-AG® is for the adult-gerontology clinical nurse specialists educated to care for adult-gerontology patients.
- ACCNS-P® is for the pediatric clinical nurse specialists educated to care for pediatric patients.
- ACCNS-N® is for the neonatal clinical nurse specialists educated to care for neonatal patients.

Advanced Practice Certifications
With implementation of the Consensus Model in 2015, ACNPC and CCNS are available as renewal options only:
- ACNPC® is for acute care nurse practitioners educated to provide care to adult patients.
- CCNS® is for acute/critical care clinical care specialists educated to provide care to adult, pediatric or neonatal patients.

We continually seek to provide quality certification programs that meet the changing needs of nurses and patients. Please visit www.aacn.org/certification, or call 800-899-2226 for more information about the above certifications.

Thank you for your commitment to patients and their families and to becoming certified.

Definition
Certification is a process by which a nongovernmental agency validates, based upon predetermined standards, an individual nurse’s knowledge for safe and effective practice in a defined functional or clinical area of nursing.

ACCNS-AG is an entry-level advanced practice certification for clinical nurse specialists (CNSs) educated at the graduate level to provide advanced nursing care across the continuum of healthcare services - wellness through acute care - to meet the specialized needs of the adult-gerontology patient population (young adults, older adults and frail elderly).

Code of Ethics
AACN and AACN Certification Corporation consider the American Nurses Association (ANA) Code of Ethics for Nurses foundational for nursing practice, providing a framework for making ethical decisions and fulfilling responsibilities to the public, colleagues and the profession.

AACN Certification Corporation’s mission of public protection supports a standard of excellence that certified nurses have a responsibility to read, understand and act in a manner congruent with the ANA Code of Ethics for Nurses. To access the ANA Code of Ethics, visit www.aacn.org/certification > Overview > Learn More.

ACCNS-AG Registered Service Mark
ACCNS-AG is a registered service mark and denotes certification as an adult-gerontology clinical nurse specialist as granted by AACN Certification Corporation. Clinical nurse specialists who have not achieved ACCNS-AG certification or whose ACCNS-AG certification has lapsed are not authorized to use the ACCNS-AG credential.

Administration and Sponsorship
The certification programs are administered by AACN Certification Corporation. The certification exams are conducted in cooperation with PSI Services.

Membership Requirements
There are no association membership requirements to participate in the ACCNS-AG certification program.

Nondiscrimination Policy
It is the policy of AACN Certification Corporation, its Board of Directors, committee members and staff to comply with all applicable laws that prohibit discrimination in employment or service provision because of a person’s race, color, religion, gender, age, disability, national origin, or because of any other protected characteristic.

Recognition of Certification
Candidates who meet all eligibility requirements and pass the ACCNS-AG certification exam may use “ACCNS-AG” after their licensing title. ACCNS-AG is used in recognition of professional competence as an adult-gerontology clinical nurse specialist for a 5-year period of certification.

ACCNS-AG is a registered service mark. It is not punctuated with periods. The proper use of ACCNS-AG is as follows:
Chris Smith, RN, MSN, ACCNS-AG.

AACN views misuse of the credential as misleading to the public and may result in denial of certification or revocation of certification.

A listing of ACCNS-AG-certified nurses is maintained by AACN Certification Corporation and may be reported in its publications and/or listed on its website.

Certification status is available to the public via the online Certification Verification system, available at www.aacn.org/certification.

NAME AND ADDRESS CHANGES

Renewal notifications will be mailed and emailed to you starting 4 months prior to your scheduled renewal date. You are responsible for notifying AACN Certification Corporation should your name and/or address change at any time before or after you become certified. Failure to do so may result in not receiving information necessary for certification renewal.

Please notify us of any address or email address changes; you may update your profile as follows:

- online at www.aacn.org/myaccount,
- email info@aacn.org, or
- call AACN Customer Care at 800-899-2226

The following changes must be made by calling AACN Customer Care at 800-899-2226

- name changes
- address changes for exam candidates during the 90-day testing window

Candidates are responsible for renewing their certification even if they do not receive a renewal notice.

ACCNS-AG RENEWAL POLICIES

AACN Certification Corporation may adopt additional eligibility requirements at its sole discretion. Any such requirements will be designed to establish, for purposes of ACCNS-AG certification, the adequacy of a candidate’s knowledge in care of the acutely/critically ill.

Late or retroactive renewal is not available for ACCNS-AG certification. To maintain a current ACCNS-AG certification, renewal must be completed prior to your certification expiration date.

To reobtain certification you would then need to meet the current ACCNS-AG initial exam eligibility requirements (based on educational preparation) and pass the ACCNS-AG exam.
Purpose and Limitations of Renewal Options

The purpose of certification renewal is to promote continued competence. The renewal process helps to maintain an up-to-date knowledge base through one of the following options:

- Practice hours and continuing education (CE) including pharmacology
- Practice hours, CE in pharmacology and passing the certification exam
- CE including pharmacology and passing the certification exam.

Following are the limitations to the components of the renewal options:

- CE limitations include content quality and relevance to practice as well as an individual’s ability to self-select CEs most pertinent to the individual’s practice and educational needs.
- Limitations of practice hours include the quality of the practice environment and limitations on learning opportunities.
- One limitation of the exam is not assessing new competencies, as exam competencies were validated through initial certification.

Requiring multiple components for renewal rather than one, decreases the limitations and furthers the goal of continued competence.

Eligibility

Candidates for ACCNS-AG renewal must hold a current, unencumbered U.S.* RN or APRN license.

- An unencumbered license has not been subjected to formal discipline by the board of nursing in the state(s) in which you practiced during the 5-year certification period and had no provisions or conditions that limited your nursing practice.
- Provisions or conditions may include, but are not limited to, direct supervision of practice, drug administration limitations and/or practice area exclusions.
- Certificants must notify AACN Certification Corporation within 30 days if any provisions or conditions are placed against their RN or APRN license(s).

The name and contact information for your supervisor or a professional colleague (RN or physician) who can verify practice hours must be provided. The verifier need not be ACCNS-AG-certified.

Nurses who hold an encumbered license, meaning a provision or condition that limits their nursing practice has been placed against their RN and/or APRN license, may be eligible for Conditional Certification. Email APRNcert@aacn.org to inquire.

- Conditional Certification is a temporary status granted to a nurse seeking APRN certification who has a provision or condition placed against their RN and/or APRN license.
- Conditional status will be changed to Active status once the provision or condition against the RN and/or APRN license has been removed and the license is unencumbered.
- If the SBON suspends or revokes the nurse’s license and he/she cannot practice, certification will be revoked.

- Candidates call or go online directly after receiving their confirmation email or postcard from PSI to schedule an appointment at a testing location of their choice.
- Candidates must apply for, take and pass the ACCNS-AG exam before the expiration date of their certification.
ACCNS-AG CE RENEWAL POINTS PROGRAM

Category I - Education Programs (Wellness through Acute Care)

At least 75 of the 150 required CE Points must be in this category. All 150 CE points may be in this category.

A. Formally Approved Programs

This area encompasses programs granting approved continuing education credit(s) such as CE, CME, ACPE and academic credit courses.

Acceptable programs must possess one of the following characteristics:

- Have direct application to meeting the care needs of the adult-gerontology patient population.
- Address clinical knowledge, skills and abilities utilized by adult-gerontology CNSs.

Twenty-five (25) CE Points in Category I must be pharmacology-focused.

- Pharmacology content must be at the advanced practice level and related to the APRN’s licensed advanced role and population focus.
- To determine the number of CE Points for programs providing CEs or CMEs that don’t specify pharmacology hours and programs that don’t provide formal contact hours, but include pharmacology content, use the following calculation: 60 minutes = 1 CE Point.
- If audited, submit the educational presentation or conference agenda as evidence to validate the CE point calculation and include a narrative note describing pharmacology content within agenda.

These programs need NOT be approved by the American Association of Critical-Care Nurses and may be offered by hospitals, professional associations or independent education groups. Home study or self-study programs from professional journals and other sources that grant contact hours apply to Category I.

Continuing Medical Education (CME) may account for no more than 50% of the total points in Category I.

If an academic credit course specific to care of the adult-gerontology patient population is completed, CE Points can be awarded in Category I. For academic credit courses, one (1) credit is worth 15 CE Points. For example, a 3-credit course would be worth 45 CE Points.

Eligible courses include, but are not limited to:

- Physical assessment
- Anatomy/physiology/pathophysiology
- Diagnostic tests used in clinical settings (e.g., ABG, x-ray and lab interpretation)
- Concerns regarding the clinical environment (e.g., infection control)

By signing below I affirm that the information included on this ACCNS-AG CE Renewal Points Log is true and correct.

Signature________________________ Printed Name________________________ Date__________
The ACCNS-AG certification program is organized using the AACN Synergy Model for Patient Care™ as a framework. All competencies are from nationally recognized organizations such as the National Association of Clinical Nurse Specialist and the American Association of Colleges of Nursing.

The basic tenet of the Synergy Model is that optimal patient outcomes can be produced through the synergistic interaction between the needs of the patient and the competencies of the nurse. AACN Certification Corporation is committed to ensuring that certified nursing practice is based on the needs of patients. Integration of the AACN Synergy Model for Patient Care into AACN Certification Corporation’s certification programs puts emphasis on the patient and says to the world that patients come first.

The Synergy Model creates a comprehensive look at the patient. It puts the patient in the center of nursing practice. The model identifies nursing’s unique contributions to patient care and uses language to describe the professional nurse’s role. It provides nursing with a venue that clearly states what we do for patients and allows us to start linking ourselves to, and defining ourselves within, the context of the patient and patient outcomes.

Patient Characteristics

The Synergy Model encourages nurses to view patients in a holistic manner rather than the “body systems” medical model. Each patient and family is unique, with a varying capacity for health and vulnerability to illness. Each patient, regardless of the clinical setting, brings a set of unique characteristics to the care situation. Depending on where they are on the healthcare continuum, patients may display varying levels of the following characteristics:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Characteristic</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Resiliency</td>
<td>Capacity to return to a restorative level of functioning using compensatory/coping mechanisms; the ability to bounce back quickly after an insult.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Vulnerability</td>
<td>Susceptibility to actual or potential stressors that may adversely affect patient outcomes.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stability</td>
<td>Ability to maintain a steady-state equilibrium.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Complexity</td>
<td>Intricate entanglement of two or more systems (e.g., body, family, therapies).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Resource Availability</td>
<td>Extent of resources (e.g., technical, fiscal, personal, psychological and social) the patient/family/community bring to the situation.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Participation in Care</td>
<td>Extent to which patient/family engages in aspects of care.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Participation in Decision Making</td>
<td>Extent to which patient/family engages in decision making.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Predictability</td>
<td>A characteristic that allows one to expect a certain course of events or course of illness.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

FOR EXAMPLE:

A healthy, uninsured, 40-year-old woman undergoing a pre-employment physical could be described as an individual who is (a) stable (b) not complex (c) very predictable (d) resilient (e) not vulnerable (f) able to participate in decision making and care, but (g) has inadequate resource availability.

On the other hand: a critically ill, insured infant with multisystem organ failure can be described as an individual who is (a) unstable (b) highly complex (c) unpredictable (d) highly resilient (e) vulnerable (f) unable to become involved in decision making and care, but (g) has adequate resource availability.

Nursing care reflects an integration of knowledge, skills, abilities and experience necessary to meet the needs of patients and families. Thus, nurse characteristics are derived from patient needs and include:

Nurses become competent within each continuum at a level that best meets the fluctuating needs of their population of patients. More compromised patients have more severe or complex needs, requiring nurses to have advanced knowledge and skills in an associated continuum.

FOR EXAMPLE:

If the patient was stable but unpredictable, minimally resilient and vulnerable, primary competencies of the nurse would be centered on clinical judgment and caring practices (which includes vigilance). If the patient was vulnerable, unable to participate in decision making and care, and had inadequate resource availability, the primary competencies of the nurse would focus on advocacy and moral agency, collaboration and systems thinking.

Although all eight competencies are essential for contemporary nursing practice, each assumes more or less importance depending on a patient’s characteristics. Synergy results when a patient’s needs and characteristics are matched with the nurse’s competencies.

The certification program is also based on the three spheres of influence in which CNSs operate: Patient, Nurses/Nursing Practice and Organizations/Systems. A sphere of influence identifies the focus of practice activities and target outcomes associated with the area. The certification exam is based on the activities performed by CNSs in connection with the eight nurse characteristics in the context of the three spheres of influence.

Based on the most recent AACN Certification Corporation study of nursing practice, the test plans for our certification exams reflect the Synergy Model as well as findings related to nursing care of the patient population studied (e.g., CNS practice in the care of adult-gerontology patients, covering the spectrum of wellness through acute care).

For more information about the AACN Synergy Model for Patient Care, visit www.aacn.org.
