Our advanced practice certification programs, ACCNS-AG, ACCNS-P, ACCNS-N and ACNPC-AG, meet the National Council of State Boards of Nursing (NCSBN) criteria for APRN certification programs.
As healthcare becomes increasingly complex and challenging, certification has emerged as a mark of excellence showing patients, employers and the public that a nurse possesses a defined body of knowledge and has met the rigorous requirements to achieve specialty and/or subspecialty certification.

AACN Certification Corporation programs were created to protect healthcare consumers by validating the knowledge of nurses who care for and/or influence the care delivered to the acutely and critically ill adults, children and neonates. Today, more than 115,000 practicing nurses hold one or more certifications from AACN Certification Corporation.

This handbook outlines rules and policies for all AACN certification exam programs and includes such information as testing site and scheduling details, day of exam rules, recognition and use of credentials, obtaining a duplicate score report and name or address changes.

A brief description of the various AACN certification programs can be found on pages 3 and 4:

Definition
Certification is a process by which a nongovernmental agency validates, based upon predetermined standards, an individual nurse’s knowledge for safe and effective practice in a defined functional or clinical area of nursing.

Certification validates your knowledge of nursing in your specialty area to hospitals, peers, patients and, most importantly, to yourself. Certification promotes continuing excellence in the nursing profession.

Code of Ethics
AACN and AACN Certification Corporation consider the American Nurses Association (ANA) Code of Ethics for Nurses foundational for nursing practice, providing a framework for making ethical decisions and fulfilling responsibilities to the public, colleagues and the profession.

AACN Certification Corporation’s mission of public protection supports a standard of excellence that certified nurses have a responsibility to read, understand and act in a manner congruent with the ANA Code of Ethics for Nurses.

To access the ANA Code of Ethics visit www.aacn.org/certification > Overview > Learn more about AACN Certification Corporation.

AACN Values Related to Upholding the Value of Certification
Exam security is paramount to protecting patients, families and certified nurses. When we compromise the value of certification, we compromise the credentials that validate our knowledge in our specialty.

AACN's values of accountability, integrity and stewardship translate directly into upholding the value of certification. Thus, we will:

- Be accountable by upholding and consistently acting in concert with ethical values and principles.
- Act with integrity by communicating openly and honestly, keeping promises, honoring commitments and promoting loyalty in all relationships.
- Demonstrate stewardship through fair and responsible management of resources.

For more information, please refer to www.aacn.org/certification > Overview > Value of Certification.

Non-Discrimination Policy
It is the policy of AACN Certification Corporation, its Board of Directors, committee members and staff to comply with all applicable laws that prohibit discrimination in employment or service provision because of a person’s race, color, religion, gender, age, disability, national origin or any other protected characteristic.

- address changes for exam candidates during the 90-day testing window

You are responsible for renewing your certification even if you do not receive a renewal notice.

Certification and Exam Administration
The certification programs are administered by AACN Certification Corporation. The certification exams are conducted in cooperation with Applied Measurement Professionals, Inc., a PSI business (PSI/AMP).

Computer-based exams are administered 6 days per week throughout the year at more than 300 PSI/AMP locations across the United States.

Computer experience is not necessary as you will use only a few keystrokes or a mouse and be able to take a tutorial and practice test before the exam begins. During the exam you will be able to move back and forth between items and mark items for later review.

You will receive final results including a breakdown by question type at the end of the computer-based exam.

Cognitive Levels of Questions

The cognitive level of the test items is based on a condensed version of Bloom’s Taxonomy. The majority of the items are written at the application and analysis levels. Testing at higher cognitive levels provides a better indication of the candidate’s critical thinking abilities when caring for acutely and critically ill patients and their families.

Exam Preparation

AACN Certification Corporation does not participate in the development of AACN products and does not approve, endorse or recommend any specific exam preparation products. Test plans are included in each of the individual program handbooks, available at www.aacn.org/certhandbooks. To order AACN exam review products, visit www.aacn.org/store or call 800-899-2226.

For information about locating a local AACN Chapter to inquire about review courses in your area, visit www.aacn.org/chapters.

If you have more than a 3-hour one-way drive to the nearest CBT site, please see below and email certification@aacn.org to inquire about paper and pencil testing.

Paper and Pencil Testing
The same eligibility requirements apply as for computer-based testing, although fees for paper and pencil exam sessions are priced based on the number testing together and may be higher than for CBT. For pricing information, refer to page 9.

For information about paper and pencil exams for large groups (30 or more) testing together within the U.S., please email certification@aacn.org. Requests for paper testing must be submitted in writing at least 3 months before the exam date, along with all completed applications and appropriate fees. Group discount pricing does not apply to paper and pencil sessions. An email address for the group point of contact must be provided.

Results of paper and pencil exams are mailed to candidates 3 to 4 weeks following paper testing.

Testing Outside the U.S.
Individuals residing outside the U.S. may apply to take an exam at a military testing site (e.g., DANTES) or at select non-military sites. Exams are offered via paper and pencil or web-based testing (web-based applies to adult and neonatal CCRN exams only).

For international testing inquiries or requests, please email certification@aacn.org. Web-based testing requires a special application, which is available by emailing certification@aacn.org.

Exam Accommodations
AACN Certification Corporation is committed to ensuring that no individual is deprived of the opportunity to take an exam solely by reason of a disability or impairment. Every testing site is fully accessible and compliant with the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Exam accommodations will be considered for those with a disability or impairment who submit a request in advance. Documentation and verification of the disability or impairment from a suitably licensed professional qualified to diagnose the condition must be submitted to AACN Certification Corporation with the exam application and indicated by checking the appropriate box on the exam application.

Accommodations, such as additional testing time, reader, signer or amanuenses, require advance approval. Only candidates approved by AACN Certification Corporation will receive accommodations during testing.

A Request for Exam Accommodations form is located on pages 22 and 23.

Scheduling for the hearing impaired is available at www.goAMP.com.

Candidate Evaluation or Complaints
You may provide comments for any test item during a computerized exam by clicking on the button displaying an exclamation point (!) to the left of the TIME button. This opens a dialog box to enter comments.

For paper and pencil testing, comments may be written in the designated area of the scantron form.

Only comments submitted at the test site will be considered during the final scoring process.

Because of test security considerations, you will not receive individual replies about the content of test items or be permitted to review test items after completing the exam.

At the conclusion of the exam, you may also complete a brief survey about test administration conditions.

Please email complaints or comments about assessment site facilities, test supervision or any other matter related to the testing program to:

certification@aacn.org

Or mail to:

AACN Certification Corporation

ON THE DAY OF YOUR EXAM

Report to the designated testing site no later than your scheduled time. The address is available when you schedule your exam. PSI/AMP sites are typically located in H&R Block offices. Look for signs indicating PSI/AMP Testing Site Check-In.

You will not be permitted to start the exam prior to your scheduled time and will not be admitted if you arrive more than 15 minutes late.

No books, papers, dictionaries, other reference materials or personal items, including purses, briefcases, coats, etc., may be taken into the testing site and must be left in a vehicle or at home.

Neither PSI/AMP, AACN nor H&R Block will be responsible for loss or damage to personal items. We also recommend layering your clothing so that you can adjust to the room’s temperature during the exam.

Inclement Weather or Emergency
24-Hour PSI/AMP Weather Hotline 800-380-5416

In the event of inclement weather or unforeseen emergencies on the day of an exam, PSI/AMP will determine whether circumstances warrant the cancellation and subsequent rescheduling of an exam.

PSI/AMP will make every attempt to contact each scheduled candidate as soon as a closure has been issued. For the latest closure information, visit www.goAMP.com > Candidates. You may also contact the PSI/AMP Candidate Support Center at 913-895-4600.

An exam will usually not be rescheduled if testing site personnel can reach and operate the site. Every attempt is made to administer exams as scheduled. Should an exam be canceled at a testing site, all scheduled candidates will receive follow-up notification regarding a rescheduled exam date or reapplication procedures.

Security Standards
AACN Certification Corporation and PSI/AMP maintain test administration and test security standards designed to ensure that all candidates are provided the same opportunity to demonstrate their abilities. The testing site is continuously monitored by audio and video surveillance equipment for security purposes.

Taking the Exam - CBT

Logging In: After your identity has been confirmed, you will be directed to a testing carrel where the computer screen will instruct you to enter your social security number. Instead, use your AACN Customer ID number preceded by the letter “C,” as printed on your confirmation postcard label. If you do not remember this number, you may ask the proctor. You will then capture your own photograph, which will remain on-screen throughout your testing session. The photograph will also appear on your score report.

Each exam consists of multiple choice questions. The number of questions answered correctly determines your score.

Answering Test Items: Only one question is presented at a time. The item number appears in the lower right-hand corner of the screen. The entire test item will appear on the screen (i.e., a stem and 4 answer options labeled A, B, C and D).

Use the mouse to click on your answer, or use the keyboard to enter the letter for your answer. Your answer will appear in the lower left section of the screen.

Changing Your Answer: Click on a different answer or use the keyboard to change your answer as many times as you wish during the exam.

Moving to the Next Item: Click on the forward arrow (>) in the lower right corner of the screen or select the NEXT key. Either action will move you forward through the exam item by item. Click the backward arrow (<) or use the left arrow on the keyboard to return to previous items.

Unanswered Items: You may leave an item unanswered and return to it later. You should not spend too much time on difficult questions. Instead, proceed to other questions and return to the difficult ones if time permits.

You may bookmark an item for later review by clicking the blank square to the right of the TIME button. Clicking on the hand icon or selecting the NEXT key advances to the next unanswered or bookmarked item on the exam. To identify all unanswered and bookmarked items, repeatedly click on the hand icon or press the NEXT key.

Answer Every Item: When you have completed the exam, the number of items you answered is reported. If you have not answered every item and have time remaining, return to the exam and answer them.

Practice Exam: The time used for a practice exam is not counted as part of the timed exam. Once you are comfortable with the computer-based testing process, you may end the practice session and start the timed exam.

Timed Exam: After your practice session, you will begin the actual exam. Instructions for taking the exam are available on-screen once you begin the exam.

The time limit is intended to allow you to complete the entire exam by working quickly and efficiently. The computer monitors the time you spend on the exam, and the exam ends automatically if you exceed the time limit.

You can display a digital clock showing the time remaining by clicking the TIME button in the lower right-hand corner of the screen or selecting the TIME key. If you find it distracting, you may turn off the digital clock using either command anytime during the exam.

During the Exam

Questions About Content: You may not ask questions about the content of the exam at any time.

Making Notes: You will be provided with scratch paper to use during the exam. You may not remove any documents or notes from the exam room, and their return to the proctor is required in order to receive your score.

All computer screens, questions, paper and written materials are the property of AACN Certification Corporation and PSI/AMP and may not be reproduced in any form.

Commenting on Items: You may comment about any item by clicking on the exclamation point (!) to the left of the TIME button. This opens a dialog box where you may enter your comments.

Breaks, Food, Drink, Smoking: Breaks are considered part of your exam time. You may request a break whenever you wish but will not be allowed additional make-up time. Leaving the testing site without authorization automatically voids the exam. You may not eat, drink or smoke in the testing site.

Ending the Exam: If you finish the exam early, you may end the exam by clicking the COVER button on the screen.

There is no penalty for guessing.

After the Exam

After you finish the exam, you will be asked to complete a short evaluation of your testing experience.

For computer-based testing, your official score report will be provided by the proctor upon completion of the exam. For paper and pencil testing, your score report will be mailed 3 to 4 weeks following completion of the exam.

Your official score report will also provide the percentage of correct answers for each major content category.

Approximately 3 to 4 weeks after testing, successful candidates will receive their congratulations letter and wall certificate.

Dismissal From the Testing Site

The proctor may dismiss you from the exam for any of these reasons:

- Unauthorized admission to the exam
- Creating a disturbance or being abusive or otherwise uncooperative
- Bringing unauthorized electronic devices including personal digital assistants (PDAs), other handheld computers, calculators, telephones, pagers, alarms and other signaling devices
- Bringing notes or other resources into the testing site
- Attempting to record test questions or make notes
- Attempting to take the exam for someone else
- Giving or receiving help or being suspected of doing so
- Leaving the premises without notifying the proctor

If you are dismissed for any of these violations, your exam score will be voided and your fees will not be refunded. Evidence of misconduct will be reviewed by AACN Certification Corporation to determine whether you will be allowed to reapply for the exam. If a re-exam is granted, a complete application and fee are required to reapply.

Failure to Report for an Exam

You may reapply to take the exam in the future if you did not appear for your scheduled testing session. If your original application is less than one year old, it may be reactivated by paying a fee equivalent to the retest fee. If the application is more than one year old, you must submit a new application and a fee equivalent to the retest fee.

Misuse/Disclosure of Exam Content

Any individual who removes or attempts to remove materials from the testing site, or who receives, discusses, discloses, reproduces, distributes, displays or otherwise misuses a test question or any part of a test question from a certification exam by written, electronic, oral or other form of communication, including but not limited to emailing, copying or printing of electronic files and reconstruction through memorization and/or dictation, will be subject to legal action and monetary damages.

Any nurse who engages in such improper behavior may also face denial or revocation of eligibility for certification or denial or revocation of certification.

Confidentiality of Exam Scores

The exam application that you submit to AACN Certification Corporation constitutes written authorization for PSI/AMP to release your exam scores to AACN Certification Corporation.

Scores for exams taken within the U.S. are reported upon completion of the exam or by U.S. mail. Scores for exams completed outside the U.S. are reported via email or by U.S. mail. Exam scores are not reported by telephone or facsimile.

Neither PSI/AMP nor AACN Certification Corporation will release scores to any institution or employer without your written consent.
EXAM RESULTS

Passing Point/Cut Score

A criterion-referenced standard setting process, known as the modified Angoff, is used to establish the passing point/cut score for the exam. Each candidate's performance on the exam is measured against a predetermined standard.

The passing point/cut score for the exam is established using a panel of subject matter experts, an exam development committee (EDC), who carefully reviews each exam question to determine the basic level of knowledge or skill that is expected. The passing point/cut score is based on the panel's established difficulty ratings for each exam question.

Under the guidance of a psychometrician, the panel develops and recommends the passing point/cut score, which is reviewed and approved by AACN Certification Corporation. The passing point/cut score for the exam is established to identify individuals with an acceptable level of knowledge and skill. All individuals with a score equal to or above the passing point/cut score have demonstrated an acceptable level of knowledge.

The passing point/cut score is not a percentage but a raw number that may change over time as an exam is updated based on results of the most recent study of practice, also known as a job analysis, or when the exam forms are periodically changed and equated for difficulty.

For each content area, the percentage of questions answered correctly is also reported to give candidates an idea of how well they performed in each area and to identify areas of weakness.

The questions are designed to test both your ability to remember specific facts or points of knowledge and your ability to apply that knowledge in performing specific skills and abilities required of acute or critical care nurses. Since an exam measures your knowledge in all areas, you could achieve a high percentage of correct responses in some areas but not pass the exam.

The passing point/cut score should not be confused with the pass rate, which is the percentage of candidates testing who are successful at passing an exam.

Canceled Scores

AACN Certification Corporation and PSI/AMP are responsible for the integrity of the scores they report. On occasion, occurrences such as a computer malfunction or misconduct by a candidate may cause a score to be suspect. AACN Certification Corporation and PSI/AMP are committed to resolving such issues as quickly as possible.

AACN Certification Corporation may void exam results if investigation shows that regulations have been violated.

If You Do Not Pass the Exam

If you do not pass the exam, you may reapply to AACN Certification Corporation for a retest. A discounted retest fee is available to candidates who took the exam within their most recent 90-day window but did not pass. Candidates may apply for and take the same certification exam up to 4 times in a 12-month period. After 12 months, signing a new honor statement is required.

Candidates may apply for a retest via one of the following methods:

- Online at www.aacn.org/certification > Get Certified
  - Option will be in place 2 weeks after an exam is completed
- By mailing or faxing a paper application
  - Application can be found in the applicable handbook online at www.aacn.org/ce rhandbooks
  - Select the “retest” option
- By calling AACN Customer Care at 800-899-2226

Duplicate Score Reports

You may request an additional copy of your score report for $25 per copy. Submit requests and payment by check or money order within 12 months of sitting for the exam to:

PSI/AMP Corporate Headquarters
18000 W. 105th St.
Olathe, KS 66061

The request must include:

- Your name
- AACN Customer ID# preceded by the letter “C” (e.g., C00123456)
- Address
- Telephone number
- Date and type of exam taken

Sign and date your request. Duplicate score reports are mailed within approximately 2 weeks after receipt of your request.
The purpose of certification renewal is to promote continued competence. The renewal process helps to maintain an up-to-date knowledge base through continuing education and practice hours, or practice hours and passing the certification exam.

Following are the limitations to the components of the renewal options:

- CE/CERP limitations include content quality and relevance to practice as well as an individual’s ability to self-select CE/CERPs most pertinent to the individual’s practice and educational needs.

- Limitations of practice hours include the quality of the practice environment and limitations on learning opportunities.

- One limitation of the exam is not assessing new competencies, as exam competencies were validated through initial certification.

Requiring two components for renewal, rather than one, decreases the limitations and furthers the goal of continued competence.

PURPOSE AND LIMITATIONS OF RENEWAL OPTIONS

Certification Renewal

Your certification period begins the first day of the month in which the certification exam is passed.

- CCRN, CCRN-K, CCRN-E, PCCN, PCCN-K, CMC, and CSC certifications are granted for a 3-year period. For example, April 1, 2018 through March 31, 2021.

- ACNPC-AG, ACCNS-AG, ACCNS-P, ACCNS-N, ACNPC and CCNS certifications are granted for a 5-year period. For example, April 1, 2018 through March 31, 2023.

Renewal notifications will be mailed and emailed to you starting 4 months before your scheduled renewal date. You are responsible for renewing your certification even if you do not receive renewal notification.

Renewal by exam candidates must successfully apply for and schedule their exam in enough time to complete the exam before their scheduled renewal date. You may not take the exam early, then attempt to renew by CEs or CERPs if you do not pass.

To renew, you must hold a current, unencumbered U.S.* RN or APRN license that was not subjected to formal discipline by any state board of nursing during the most recent certification period. This applies to all RN and APRN licenses currently held.

Refer to the individual certification renewal handbooks for specific requirements and for alternate designations, such as Inactive status.

*Includes District of Columbia and U.S. territories of Guam, Virgin Islands, American Samoa and Northern Mariana Islands.
Random audits of initial exam and renewal candidates is a routine part of AACN Certification Corporation’s commitment to our mission of ensuring public safety and complying with standard regulatory practices.

Nurses are not notified in advance of being audited. Audits are conducted randomly after candidates successfully pass the initial exam or renew certification. Those selected for audit are notified via email and mail, and have a period of 60 days to submit the required documentation.

For initial exam audit, the following documentation is required:
- copy of U.S. RN or APRN license
- form to verify clinical/practice hours

For renewal audit, the following documentation is required:
- copy of U.S. RN or APRN license
- form to verify clinical/practice hours
- CERP Log or CE Renewal Point Log
- copies of CE/CERP documentation

AACN Certification Corporation will review audit documentation and respond to audit candidates within 30 days of receiving their documentation. Those who pass the audit will be informed via email. Those who do not pass the audit will be sent a letter notifying them of the revocation of their certification.

Failure to respond to an audit, pass an audit or provide the required information in a timely manner will result in revocation. Notification of certification revocation may be sent to the nurse’s employer and state board of nursing, as appropriate.

No refunds will be issued in the case of failure or non-response to an audit. Revocation of certification may be appealed. Refer to page 21.

Complete details about the audit process can be found in the renewal handbook for your certification, available at www.aacn.org/certhandbooks.

Military nurses who receive an audit notification while under overseas deployment orders are asked to contact AACN at 800-899-2226 immediately upon their return to the U.S. for instructions on submitting audit materials without penalty.
RECOGNITION OF CERTIFICATION AND USE OF CREDENTIALS

A listing of certified nurses is maintained by AACN Certification Corporation and may be reported in its publications and/or listed on its website. Certification status is available to the public via the Certification Verification system, at www.aacn.org/certification > Verify Certification.

AACN certifications are not punctuated with periods. The specific program of certification (e.g., CCRN) and specific patient population (i.e., neonatal, pediatric, adult or adult-gerontology) where applicable, will be noted on the certificant’s wall certificate.

Specialty Certifications
Candidates who meet all eligibility requirements and pass the specialty certification exam may use the corresponding credential, "CCRN", "CCRN-K", "CCRN-E", "PCCN" or “PCCN-K” after their licensing title.

CMC and CSC are registered service marks.

CMC and CSC may only be displayed attached to a clinical nursing specialty credential.

The proper use of each credential is as follows:

- CMC: Chris Smith, RN, PCCN-CMC
- CSC: Chris Smith, RN, CCRN-CSC

If both subspecialty credentials are obtained, they may be attached to the same clinical nursing specialty credential, e.g., CCRN-CMC-CSC.

Appeal of Eligibility, Exam and Renewal Determination
